The Company

3Fall Dance Company is a non-profit making company that has been running successfully for over ten years. Being residents at the University of Chichester, the company is made up of 15 final year students, all studying a BA (hons) Dance Degree. Our Spring Tour will include a variety of works from both professional and emerging choreographers; Ceyda Tanc, Richard Chappell and Victoria Fox.

About Us

3Fall Dance Company has a cast of 15 dancers, consisting of 11 female and 4 male performers. After auditioning to be part of the company, the dancers work closely alongside the choreographers to produce a variety of work of a professional standard. All dancers are training in choreography, contemporary technique and teaching as part of their degree at the University of Chichester. 3Fall Dance Company also consists of 5 administrators and 4 technicians, working collaboratively alongside the performers and choreographers to produce the 2017 Spring Tour.

Choreographers

Richard Chappell

Following training at Tring Park School for Performing Arts and Rambert School of Ballet and Contemporary Dance, Richard Chappell formed his company Richard Chappell Dance with funding from Arts Council England and The Linbury Trust in 2014. Richard has created 'Haven' for Stuttgart Ballet's Noverre Gesellschaft 2016, been commissioned twice by English National Ballet's engagement department and created two works for the National Youth Ballet of Great Britain (Sadler's Wells). Richard has lead workshops for Rambert School, Northern School of Contemporary Dance and Singapore School.

Ceyda Tanc

After graduating from the University of Roehampton with a BA Dance Studies in 2011, Ceyda was invited to spend four months at The State Turkish Conservatoire for Music and Folk Dance in Izmir to train in traditional Turkish folk dance, including Zeybek and Denizli, the dance styles of her heritage. Whilst in Izmir, she taught contemporary dance workshops to degree students, youth companies and dance teachers.

Victoria Fox

Victoria is a Brighton based dancer, choreographer and teacher. She trained at the Laban Centre, London. She has danced for companies Silesian Dance Theatre in Poland, CandoCo Dance Company, work by Fin Walker and Athina Valha. Jasmin Vardimon Company, Yael Flexer's Bedlem Dance Company, Baila Louca and trained with Andre Gingras both in Holland.

Workshops

3Fall offer a variety of workshops in addition to a performance of choreographic pieces. Working with company members allows students participating in the workshops to experience the creative processes of 3Fall Dance Company. Each workshop is specifically designed to be an enjoyable yet challenging experience for students of all age ranges and dance abilities.

Workshop A: Technique Workshop

(Structured class, based on contemporary dance technique)

Workshop B: Improvisation and Choreography

(Creative process of choreography and improvisational tasks)

Workshop C: Repertory Workshop

(Exploration of the current touring repertoire)

All workshops will involve 4-5 members of 3Fall Dance Company and will be led by a dancer who has undertaken the Teaching Dance Technique training module. The ideal capacity of a workshop is 25 students.
